EVALUATION CRITERIA

The rating includes up to 4 criteria:

- 1: The technique
- 2: The composition
- 3: The image
- 4: The show

2D: Technique / Improvisation (50/50)

3D : Technique / composition / image

4D : Technique / composition / image / Show

All these criteria are rated from 0 to 10. The ranking is done by calculating the average of all the grades obtained.

In the event of equality, the score obtained in the first criterion is used to decide between the dancers.

In the event of a further equality, the second criterion is used to decide between the dancers, then the third.

The jury, composed with professionals of the world of dance, is the only one to deliberate and its judgment remains sovereign.

The jury will be composed of at least 4 judges.

You will be able to see the table with the order of passages with the different categories about ten days before the competition. Some passages may change depending on the withdrawals that may occur.

“ A dancer can dance in several categories but only once in each category.

Medals, diplomas, trophies

- A diploma will be given to each participant
- A trophy or medal for the finalists

Team Captains must ensure that all bookings, payments have been made and music sent.

Timing :

We have prepared a table with the forecast timing for the competition. However, it is possible that the times may changed during the day of the competition. Also, we ask each dancer and their coaches to be ready 1 hour before the beginning of the competition. Please take note that the timing of the competition remains provisional and approximate.

Thank you for staying up to date throughout the competition.

“ Any additional information will be displayed backstage near the dressing rooms and announced over the microphone.

INSURANCE AND RESPONSIBILITY

In the event of a participant's health problem, the organizer declines all responsibility. The person(s) in charge of each structure must ensure that their competitors are fit to practice dance.

Minors are under the full responsibility of their parents or structure/coach throughout the competition.

The persons organizing the competition and the managers of the sports complex cannot be held liable for any bodily injury or material damage caused to any person, or suffered by them, including the candidates and their companions during travel caused by the competition and during the event.

The organizer declines all responsibility in the event of loss or theft during the event and/or during the stay.
